

NIXYÁAWII TRACKS

AN INFORMATIONAL COLORING BOOK

What is Nixyawii Tracks?

The project, Nixyáawii Watikš, aims to connect the Mission community center to Pendleton.

A team of PSU Master's students will be working closely with the tribal government and community members to design a safe and accessible multi-use trail. The proposed trail will encourage physical activity and enable people to enjoy the natural environment of the reservation.

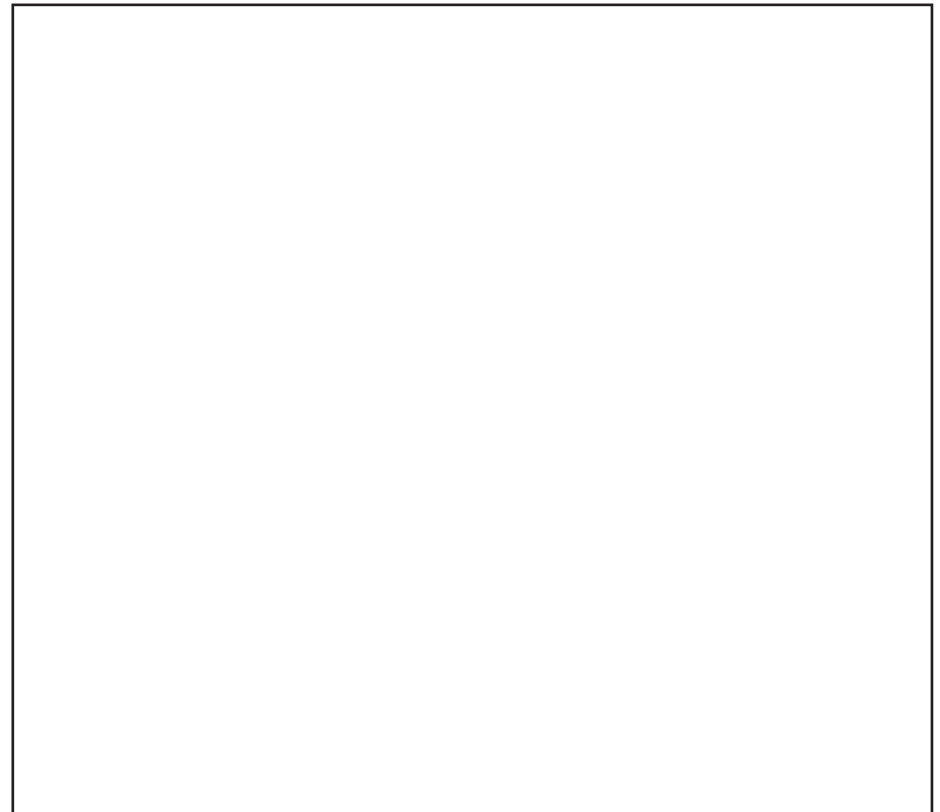

Nixyáawii Watikš will also improve access to essential services, promote economic opportunities, and preserve the community's cultural and environmental heritage.

Who are you?

DRAW A PICTURE OF YOURSELF AND THE PEOPLE WHO YOU SEE EVERYDAY!

From late March to early May of this year, six PSU students will be talking to folks in the community asking about what they might like to see on a new trail to Pendleton!

Hopefully we will meet you all soon!

Draw a trail from Pendleton to Mission Center

Can you draw in any landmarks you know?

Can you draw in the river?

WHAT WOULD MAKE THE TRAIL USEFUL?

How does community feedback work?

The team wants to listen to community members and people who might use this trail in the future. We want to understand your vision for a path so we can learn how to move forward with planning it!

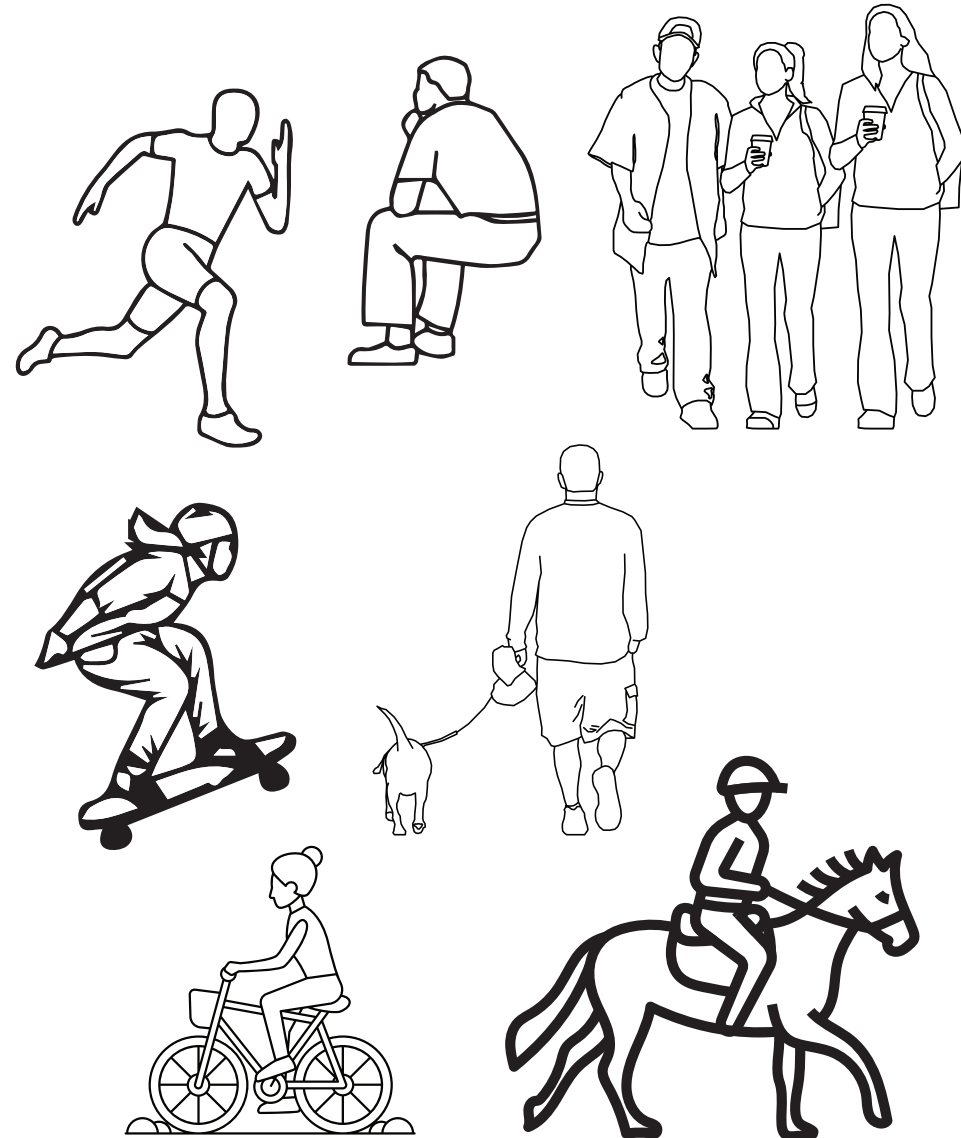

Your feedback will ultimately help determine the alignment of this trail and will help shape the policies used to make the CTUIR community a better place to walk and bike.
