CTUIR MISSION STATEMENT

Exercise the Tribe's sovereign authority to achieve the maximum protection of resources identified in the Treaty of 1855, to protect newly acquired lands wherein the Tribe has a vested interest, to protect the lands of all the citizens and residents of the Umatilla Indian Reservation. This position will protect human life, water, land, air, and wildlife by exercising professional skills and abilities in the protection of the resources of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR).

DNR MISSION STATEMENT

The CTUIR Department of Natural Resources (DNR) has adopted a mission statement based on culturally recognized foods (“First Foods”). Each food, in the order, Water, Salmon, Deer, Cous, and Huckleberry, are protected by an associated Treaty right, including water rights, the right to fish, hunt, gather, and pasture livestock. The DNR Mission Statement is as follows:

To protect, restore, and enhance the first foods - water, salmon, deer, cous, and huckleberry - for the perpetual cultural, economic, and sovereign benefit of the CTUIR. We will accomplish this utilizing traditional ecological and cultural knowledge and science to inform: 1) population and habitat management goals and actions; and 2) natural resource policies and regulatory mechanisms.

CULTURAL RESOURCES PROTECTION PROGRAM MISSION STATEMENT

The CRPP promotes the protection, preservation, and perpetuation of the CTUIR’s culturally significant places and resources for the benefit of current and future generations.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES

The Archaeologist will be responsible for the protection and management of historic properties and First Foods resources within the Confederated Tribes ceded lands and traditional use areas by assisting in monitoring the compliance of federal, state, and tribal cultural resource laws and working with various entities. The Archaeologist will assist the Senior Archaeologist or Assistant Program Manager on National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) Section 106 consultation projects, National Environmental Policy Act consultation projects, and the review of cultural resource reports. The Archaeologist will be responsible for the implementation, direction, and successful completion of cultural resource field projects.

EXAMPLES OF JOB DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Work with CRPP staff to ensure that research, field work, and report writing are completed in a professional manner.
2. Oversee or assist in executing cultural resource field work – monitoring, pedestrian survey, testing, excavation, and remote sensing – at various locations within the CTUIR’s ceded lands, traditional use areas and on the Umatilla Indian Reservation.
3. Conduct file and literature searches using the CTUIR Archive, Washington and Oregon State Historic Preservation Office records, public and/or private museums, universities, and other archival sources as appropriate.
4. Write cultural resource reports to CTUIR, Washington, and/or Oregon state standards using established report templates as directed by supervisor. Accession final reports into the CRPP Archive and geodatabase using established procedures.
5. Participate in various meetings with tribal and city governments, federal and state agencies, private companies, working groups, and contractors, representing the CTUIR in a constructive and positive manner and ensuring that the governments, agencies, companies, and contractors are following federal, state, and/or tribal cultural resources laws and codes.
6. Review and comment on NHPA consultation and compliance work including areas of potential effects, field methodologies, cultural resource reports, mitigation agreements, management plans, permits, memorandum of agreements, programmatic agreements and other pertinent documents.
7. Assist in negotiating potential work for archaeological and traditional use investigation studies including the development of cultural services consulting agreements, task orders, scopes of work and budgets to various governmental agencies, private entities, other tribes and CTUIR departments, programs, committees or commissions and the Board of Trustees.

8. Utilize GIS, remote sensing and photographic technologies as necessary to complete fieldwork, reports, and other tasks.
9. Assist in processing photographic, GIS and remote sensing data.
10. Review and comment on draft cultural resource and traditional use reports compiled by the CRPP.
11. Work with CRPP oral history staff to understand historic properties of religious and cultural significance to the CTUIR to ensure they are protected, managed and/or mitigated for.
12. Prepare progress reports on work accomplished.
13. Work to complete projects on time and manage project budgets effectively.
14. Assist with training and mentoring tribal archaeological field staff.
15. Work with other tribal staff on First Food related projects.
16. Assist and participate in CRPP education and outreach activities as assigned.
17. Attend training that will augment the skills needed to perform the work detailed above.
