In the Court's discretion, the name of a person with a temporary exemption may be removed for that year from the selected list of jurors. - B. Opening Statements. Both parties shall have the right to make an opening statement to summarize for the Court the facts, evidence and arguments each will present and rely on during trial. Whether such evidence or testimony will be received is in the discretion of the Court.
- F. Closing Arguments. After the presentation of both sides of the case, both parties shall have the right to make closing arguments in which they may interpret the facts and argue the law and generally summarize the case as they interpret it. Either side may waive their right to making closing arguments.

- G. Objections. Objections may be made by either party to test the validity of any procedural, substantive, or evidentiary matter before the Court during any hearing or trial. All objections shall be made at the time the objectionable matter arises and the specific grants therefor shall be stated. SECTION 3.21. TRIAL BY JURY

- B. Selection of the Jury.
1. Voir Dire. The prosecution and defense, in that order, shall have the opportunity to ask questions of the prospective jurors as they are individually called upon by the court to determine if there is any reason why a particular candidate should not be seated as a juror. Either party may question the propriety of any question asked by the other party of a prospective juror and it shall be within the discretion of the Court to rule on the propriety of the question.
 2. Challenges. When both sides have completed their voir dire questioning of the six prospective jurors and the one alternate, they shall confer privately with the Judge and state all challenges they have to make against any prospective juror.
 - a. Preemptory Challenges. Both parties shall have four preemptory challenges with which they may disqualify any prospective juror and need not state any reason for doing so.
 - b. Challenges for Cause. When it is established that any prospective juror is prejudiced, biased or otherwise unable to sit as a fair and impartial juror, he may be disqualified by a challenge for cause by either side. The allowance or disallowance of a challenge for cause shall be within the discretion of the Court. The number of challenges for cause by either party is unlimited.
 3. Oath to Trial Jury. After the six members and one alternate of the jury have been selected and seated, the Court shall administer an oath by which the jury swears that it will act fairly and impartially in the trial it will hear.
- C. Opening Statements. Both parties shall have the right to make an opening statement to summarize for the Court and the jury the facts, evidence and arguments each will present or rely on during trial. The prosecution shall present its statement first and the defense shall have the option of making its opening statement at that time or after the prosecution has completed the presentation of its case. Either side may waive the opening statement.
- D. Presentation of the Prosecution's Case. Upon the completion of the opening statements, the prosecution shall present to the Court and jury all of the evidence and testimony of witnesses on the prosecution's side of the case.
- E. Presentation of the Defendant's Case. Upon the completion of the presentation of the prosecution's case and after making any appropriate motions, the defense shall present to the Court and jury, all of the evidence and testimony of witnesses for the defendant's case.
- F. Reopening Case. - G. Closing Arguments. After the presentation of both sides of the case, both parties shall have the right to make closing arguments in which they may interpret the facts and argue the law and generally summarize the case as they interpret it. Either side may waive their right to make closing arguments.
- H. Jury Deliberations. Upon completion of the closing arguments and the reading of instructions to the jury by the Court, the jury shall retire to a place where privacy and freedom from outside interference and interruption is assured. The jury members shall first elect from among their number a foreman who shall act as spokesman for the jury. They shall then evaluate and weigh the evidence, resolve the conflicts and inconsistencies, apply the law to the facts as previously instructed by the Court and reach a verdict of guilty or not guilty by unanimous vote. The foreman shall notify the Judge when a verdict has been reached.
- I. Objections. Objections may be made by either party to test the validity of any procedural, substantive, or evidentiary matter before the Court during any hearing or trial. SECTION 3.22. MOTIONS AT TRIAL

- A. Either party may make motions, all of which shall be oral unless otherwise directed by the Court throughout the course of the trial. Both parties shall have the opportunity to argue their respective positions on any motion made. The motions that can be made shall include but not be limited to the following:
 - B. Motion for a Directed Verdict.
 - 1. At the close of the prosecution's case, the defense may move that the Court direct a verdict of not guilty. Defendant's motion shall be granted only if the prosecution has failed to present a prima facie case.
 - 2. Either party may make a motion for a direct verdict at the close of the defendant's case. A directed verdict of not guilty can be made when the prosecution failed to present a prima facie case and a directed verdict of guilty can be made if the Court finds as a matter of law that no adequate defense was presented.
 - C. Motions for Exclusion of Witnesses. A motion to exclude all witnesses who have not yet testified may be made by either party or done by the Court on its own initiative, prior to the time any witness has testified to insure that the testimony of all witnesses is his own independent recollection of the facts and that he does not adopt the testimony of a prior witness. It shall be within the discretion of the Court to grant or deny a motion to exclude witnesses made by either party.
 - D. Motion for Mistrial. A motion for a mistrial can be made at any time during the trial and can be granted in the Court's discretion. A party may make a motion for a mistrial when any action by any person other than the moving party, has the effect of prejudicing the outcome of the trial to the point that such prejudice could only be overcome by holding a new trial.
 - E. Motion for Judicial Notice. Either party may, during the presentation of its case, move the Court to take judicial notice of matters which by their nature, are not properly the subject of testimony or which are universally regarded as established by common notoriety. Granting or denying the motion shall be within the discretion of the Court.
 - F. Motion for a New Trial. The defendant may make a motion for a new trial after a verdict of guilty has been rendered against him. The motion must specifically allege the errors made by the Court during the trial which forms the basis for the motion. The motion shall be granted or denied as justice dictates.

*STATUTES of the CONFEDERATED TRIBES of the UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION
As Amended through Resolution No. 23-059 (June 26, 2023)*

- G. Motion to Dismiss for Unnecessary Delay in Prosecution. A motion to dismiss for unnecessary delay in prosecution may be made by the defendant prior to the commencement of the trial proceedings and shall be granted if an unreasonable amount of time has elapsed since the defendant was arraigned and if the delay was not requested or acquiesced in by the defendant.
- H. Motion to Exclude Evidence. A motion to exclude evidence may be made during the course of a trial when an opposing party introduces evidence that is inadmissible under these rules.

SECTION 3.23. EVIDENCE

- A. All evidence which the Court deems proper and necessary for reaching a true and just verdict or which is in accordance with Tribal customs and traditions, provided it is otherwise admissible under the Court's rules of evidence, shall be admitted subject to rules governing the permissible scope of search and seizure. In reaching a decision on the admissibility of any evidence, the Court may avail itself of any materials, books or documents prior to ruling.
- B. Witnesses. The testimony of witnesses shall be given orally unless the witness, for good reason presented to the Court, is or will be unable to appear personally in Court, in which case arrangements shall be made by the party calling the witness, for both parties to simultaneously question the witness under oath for purposes of obtaining a written statement for presentation to the Court at trial. Before either party relies or comments on a written statement so taken at trial, it shall be presented to the Court and he shall strike out any questions, answers or statements he deems improper. Any witness testifying in Court or being questioned for purposes of a written statement shall be subject to direct examination by the party who called him as a witness, cross-examination by the opposing party, redirect examination by the party who called him and recross examination by the opposing party.
- C. The Defendant as a Witness. The defendant cannot be compelled to testify as a witness. If the defendant invokes this privilege and does not testify, the Court and jury shall not consider such action as an indication of evidence of guilt. If the defendant voluntarily testifies he shall be subject to direct, cross, redirect, and recross examination, the same as any other witness.
- D. Search and Seizure. Evidence obtained by unlawful search and seizure is inadmissible. Lawful searches and seizures may be made in accordance with the following subsections.
 - 1. Permissible Objects of Search and Seizure. The following are subject to search and seizure:
 - a. Evidence of or information concerning the commission of a criminal offense;
 - b. Contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed;
 - c. Property that has been used, to commit or conceal the commission of an offense; and
 - d. A person for whose arrest there is probable cause or who is unlawfully held in concealment.
 - 2. Issuance of Search Warrant.
 - a. A search warrant may be issued only by a Judge.
 - b. Application for a search warrant may be made only by a tribal attorney or by any tribal police officer.
 - c. The application shall consist of a proposed warrant in conformance with paragraph (4), and shall be supported by one or more affidavits particularly setting forth the facts and circumstances tending to show that such things are in the places, or in the possession of individuals, to be searched. If an affidavit is based in whole or in part on hearsay, the affiant shall set forth facts bearing on any unnamed informants reliability and shall disclose, as far as possible, the means by which the information was obtained.

- d. Instead of the written affidavit described in subparagraph (c) of this paragraph, the Judge may take an oral statement under oath when circumstances exist making it impractical for a tribal attorney or police officer to obtain a warrant in person. The oral statement shall be recorded and transcribed. The transcribed statement shall be considered to be an affidavit for the purposes of this paragraph. In such cases, the recording of the sworn oral statement and the transcribed statement shall be considered to be an affidavit for the purposes of this paragraph. In such cases, the recording of the sworn oral statement and the transcribed statement shall be certified by the Judge receiving it and shall be retained as a part of the record of proceedings for the issuance of a warrant.

3. Hearing.

- a. Before acting on the application, the Judge may examine an oath, the affiants, and the applicant and any witnesses he may produce, and may himself call such witnesses as he considers necessary to a decision. He shall make and keep a record of any testimony taken before him. The record shall be admissible as evidence on any motion to suppress.
- b. If the Judge finds that the application meets the requirements of paragraph (1), and that, on the basis of the record made before him, there is probable cause to believe that the search will discover things specified in the application and subject to seizure under paragraph (1), he shall issue a search warrant based on his finding and in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (2) to paragraph (9). If he does not so find, the Judge shall deny the application.
- c. The Judge may orally authorize a police officer or the tribal attorney to sign the Judge's name on a duplicate original warrant. A duplicate original warrant shall be a search warrant for the purposes of paragraph (1) to paragraph (9), and it shall be returned to the Judge as provided in paragraph (9). In such cases a Judge shall enter on the face of the original warrant the exact time of the issuance of the warrant and shall sign and file the original warrant in the manner provided by law.
- d. Until the warrant is executed, the proceedings upon application for a search warrant shall be conducted with secrecy appropriate to the circumstances.

4. Contents of Search Warrant.

- a. A search warrant shall be dated and shall be addressed to and authorize its execution by an officer authorized by law to execute search warrants.
- b. The warrant shall state, or describe with particularity:
 - i. The identity of the Judge issuing the warrant and the date the warrant was issued;
 - ii. The name of the person to be searched, or the location and designation of the premises or places to be searched;
 - iii. The things constituting the object of the search and authorized to be seized; and

*STATUTES of the CONFEDERATED TRIBES of the UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION
As Amended through Resolution No. 23-059 (June 26, 2023)*

- iv. The period of time, not to exceed five (5) days, after execution of the warrant except as provided in subparagraph (c) of this paragraph, within which the warrant is to be returned to the issuing authority.
 - c. Except as otherwise provided herein, the search warrant shall be executed between the hours of 7:00 AM and 10:00 PM and within five days from the date of issuance. The Judge issuing the warrant may, however, by endorsement upon the face of the warrant, authorize its execution at any time of the day or night and may further authorize its execution after five days, but not more than ten days from date of issuance.
- 5. Execution of Warrant.
 - a. A search warrant may be executed only within the period and at the times authorized by the warrant and only by a police officer. A police officer charged with its execution may be accompanied by such other persons as may be reasonably necessary for the successful execution of the warrant with all practicable safety.
 - b. The executing officer shall, before entering the premises, give appropriate notice of his identity, authority and purpose to the person to be searched, or to the person in apparent control of the premises to be searched, as the case may be.
 - c. Before undertaking any search or seizure pursuant to the warrant, the executing officer shall read and give a copy of the warrant to the person to be searched, or to the person in apparent control of the premises to be searched. If the premises are unoccupied or there is no one in apparent control, the officer shall leave a copy of the warrant suitably affixed to the premises.
- 6. Scope of Search. The scope of search shall be only such as is authorized by the warrant and is reasonably necessary to discover the persons or things specified therein. Upon discovery of the persons or things so specified, the officer shall take possession or custody of them and search no further under authority of the warrant. If in the course of the search the officer discovers things, not specified in the warrant, which he has probable cause to believe to be subject to seizure under paragraph (1) which he did not have probable cause to expect to find, he shall also take possession of the things discovered.
- 7. List of Things Seized. Promptly upon completion of the search, the officer shall make a list of the things seized, and shall deliver a receipt embodying the list to the person from whose possession they are taken, or the person in apparent control of the premises or vehicle from which they are taken. If the vehicle or premises are unoccupied or there is no one present in apparent control, the executing officer shall leave the receipt suitably affixed to the vehicle or premises.
- 8. Use of Force in Executing Warrants.
 - a. The executing officer and other officers accompanying and assisting him may use the degree of force, short of deadly physical force, against persons, or to effect an entry, or to open containers, as is reasonably necessary for the execution of the search warrant with all practicable safety.
 - b. The use of deadly physical force in the execution of a search warrant is justifiable only:
 - i. If the officer reasonably believes that there is a substantial risk that things to be seized will be used to cause death or serious physical injury

*STATUTES of the CONFEDERATED TRIBES of the UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION
As Amended through Resolution No. 23-059 (June 26, 2023)*

the force used creates no substantial risk of injury to persons other than those obstructing the officer; or

- ii. If the officer reasonably believes that the use of deadly physical force is necessary to defend the officer or another person from the use or threatened imminent use of deadly physical force.

9. Return of the Warrant.

- a. If a search warrant is not executed within the time specified by the warrant, the officer shall forthwith return the warrant to the issuing Judge.
- b. An officer who has executed a search warrant shall, as soon as is reasonably possible and in no event later than the date specified in the warrant, return the warrant to the issuing Judge together with a signed list of things seized and setting forth the date and time of the search.
- c. Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (d) of this paragraph, the issuing Judge shall file the warrant and list returned to him, with the record of the proceedings on the application for the warrant made pursuant to paragraph (3).
- d. If the issuing Judge does not have jurisdiction to inquire into the offense in respect to which the warrant was issued or the offense apparently disclosed by the things seized, the Judge shall transmit the warrant and the record of proceedings for its issuance, together with the documents submitted on the return, to the clerk of the appropriate court having jurisdiction to inquire into such offense.

10. Handling and Disposition of Things Seized.

- a. The provisions of subparagraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this paragraph apply to all cases of seizure except for a seizure made under a search warrant.
- b. If an officer makes an arrest in connection with the seizure, he shall, as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible, make a written list of the things seized and furnish a copy of the list to the defendant.
- c. If no claim to rightful possession has been established under paragraph (11) to paragraph (14), the court shall order that the things be delivered to the officials having responsibility under the applicable laws for selling, destroying or otherwise disposing of contraband, forfeited or unclaimed goods in official custody.
- d. If things seized in connection with an arrest are not needed for evidentiary purposes, and if a person having a rightful claim establishes his identity and right to possession beyond a reasonable doubt to the satisfaction of the seizing officer the officer may summarily return the things seized to their rightful possessor. If the things seized are perishable and it is not possible to return them to their rightful possessor, the seizing officer may dispose of the items as justice and the necessities of the case require.

11. Motion for Return or Restoration of Things Seized.

- a. Within 90 days after actual notice of any seizure, or at such later date as the court in its discretion may allow:

*STATUTES of the CONFEDERATED TRIBES of the UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION
As Amended through Resolution No. 23-059 (June 26, 2023)*

- i. An individual from whose person, property or premises things have been seized may move the appropriate court to return things seized to the person or premises from which they were seized.
 - ii. Any other person a claim to rightful possession of the things seized may move the appropriate court to restore the things seized to the movant.
 - b. The appropriate court to consider such motion is:
 - i. The court having ultimate trial jurisdiction over any crime charged in connection with the seizure; or
 - ii. If no crime is charged in connection with the seizure, the court to which the warrant was returned; or
 - iii. If the seizure was not made under a warrant and no crime is charged in connection with the seizure, any court having authority to issue search warrants in the county in which the seizure was made.
12. Grounds for Motion for Return or Restoration of Things Seized. A motion for the return or restoration of things seized shall be based on the ground that the movant has a valid claim to rightful possession thereof, because:
 - a. The things had been stolen or otherwise converted, and the movant is the owner or rightful possessor; or
 - b. The things seized were not in fact subject to seizure; or
 - c. The movant, by license or otherwise, is lawfully entitled to possess things otherwise subject to seizure; or
 - d. Although the things seized were subject to seizure, the movant is or will be entitled to their return or restoration upon the court's determination that they are no longer needed for evidentiary purposes; or
 - e. The parties in the case have stipulated that the things seized may be returned to the movant.
13. Postponement of Return or Restoration; Appellate Review.
 - a. In granting a motion for return or restoration of things seized, the court shall postpone execution of the order until such time as the things in question need no longer remain available for evidentiary use.
 - b. An order granting a motion for return or restoration of things seized shall be reviewable on appeal in regular course. An order denying such a motion or entered under paragraph (14) shall be reviewable on appeal upon certification by the court having custody of the things in question that they are no longer needed for evidentiary purposes.
14. Disputed Possession Rights.
 - a. If, upon consideration of a motion for return or restoration of things seized, it appears to the court that the things should be returned or restored, but there is a substantial question whether they should be returned to the person from whose possession they were seized or to some other person, or a substantial question among several claimants to rightful possession, the court may:

- i. Return the things to the person from whose possession they were seized; or
 - ii. Impound the things seized and set a further hearing, assuring that all persons with a possible possessory interest in the things in question receive due notice and an opportunity to be heard; and
 - iii. Upon completion of the hearing provided for in clause (ii) of this subparagraph, enter an order for the return or restoration of the things seized.
- b. If there is no substantial question whether the things should be returned to the person from whose possession they were seized, they must be returned to the person upon the release of the defendant from custody.
 - c. Instead of conducting the hearing provided for in clause (ii) of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph and returning or restoring the property, the court in its discretion, may leave the several claimants to appropriate civil process for the determination of the claims.

SECTION 3.24. VERDICT

- A. Upon the completion of the closing arguments, the Court or jury, as the case may be, shall render its verdict.
- B. Verdict by Court. The Court shall render a verdict of guilty if it believes the defendant to be guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, otherwise it shall render a verdict of not guilty. The Court shall have the option of rendering a verdict immediately after closing arguments or taking the case under advisement and ruling on it at a later date.
- C. Verdict by Jury. If a unanimous jury has found beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty, a verdict of guilty shall be rendered. Otherwise, a verdict of not guilty shall be rendered.

1. Any person who has been adjudged guilty of an offense in the trial court and is or was eligible to obtain post-conviction relief under Section 3.24(A);
 2. Any person seeking to attack the legality of an order revoking a suspended or deferred sentence;
 3. Any person whose claim has already been adjudged on a writ of habeas corpus except as permitted in Section 3.47(F), and
 4. Any person seeking release due to a technical defect in commitment that does not affect the person's substantive rights under Section 3.28.
- C. Petition. A person prosecuting a writ of habeas corpus shall state in substance the following, which must be declared to be true to the best of the declarant's belief subject to the penalty of perjury:
1. That the party in whose behalf the writ is petitioned is illegally imprisoned or restrained of liberty;

 4. Why the restraint is illegal;
 5. Where or by whom the petitioner is restrained; and
 6. Name the Chief of Police, or any other person who the Petitioner claims has restrained their liberty, as Respondent.
- D. Granting of the Writ. The judge to whom a petition for writ of habeas corpus is presented shall without delay, unless the petition on its face is barred by Section 3.47(B) or is otherwise frivolous, issue an order directing the Respondent to show cause why the writ should not be allowed. The Tribal Prosecutor shall represent the Chief of Police in the proceedings. Such order shall be served on both the Respondent and Tribal Prosecutor. Upon issuance of a show cause order, the following shall apply:
1. The judge shall order the Respondent to appear in writing in opposition to the issuance of the writ as soon as is practicable and not more than 14 days from the date that the show cause order issues.

2. The judge shall rule on the show cause order within 7 days after either the Respondent files a written appearance in opposition or the appearance period expires, whichever comes first. Upon making a ruling, the judge shall do one of the following, as appropriate:
 - a. If the motion and the files and records of the case conclusively show that the Petitioner is entitled to no relief, issue a judgment denying the petition without prejudice and explain the reason for the denial.
 - b. Issue a writ of habeas corpus requiring that a return be made and proceed in a summary way to hear such evidence and argument as may be produced in support of or against the petition and dispose of the matter as law and justice may require. If a writ is issued, it shall, at a specified time and place, require the Respondent to file a return that states the time and cause of the Petitioner's restraint. The writ shall not command the Respondent to produce the Petitioner before the court issuing the writ unless the court, in its discretion, so orders. If after hearing the evidence and argument there is found to be no legal cause for the restraint of liberty, the court shall discharge the Petitioner from the restraint under which the Petitioner is held.
- E. Contents of Return. The person on whom a writ has been served shall state in the return whether the person has the Petitioner in custody or otherwise under restraint, and if not, whether they had the Petitioner in custody or under restraint at any time, and at what time, prior to or subsequent to the date of the writ. If the person has the Petitioner in custody or otherwise under restraint, the return shall state the authority and cause of such restraint. If the Petitioner is restrained by written authority, a copy of that authority shall be included with the return. If the person on whom the writ was served had the Petitioner in custody or under restraint at any time before or after the date of the writ, but has transferred custody or restraint to another, the return shall state to whom, at what time, for what cause, and by what authority the transfer occurred. The return shall be signed by the person making the return, and such return shall be subject to the penalty of perjury.
- F. Conclusiveness of Judgment. Any party to a proceeding by habeas corpus may appeal any final order of the court. No question once finally determined upon a proceeding by habeas corpus may be reexamined through another habeas corpus proceeding unless the court finds that:
 1. Newly discovered evidence, viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that no reasonable fact finder would have found the Petitioner guilty of the offense; or
 2. A new rule of tribal constitutional law, tribal law interpreting Section 3.28(A), (B), (C), (D), or (F), or binding federal law addressing rights enumerated in the Indian Civil Rights Act that are reflective of rights in the United States Constitution, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Tribes' Appellate Court or the United States Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable.

SECTION 4.02. PURPOSES; PRINCIPLES OF CONSTRUCTION

- A. The general purposes of this code are:
 - A. To ensure the public safety by preventing the commission of offenses through the deterrent influence of the sentences authorized, the correction and rehabilitation of those convicted, and their confinement when required in the interests of public protection.
 - B. To forbid and prevent conduct that unjustifiably and inexcusably inflicts or threatens substantial harm to individual or public interests.
 - C. To give fair warning of the nature of the conduct declared to constitute an offense and of the sentences authorized upon conviction.
 - D. To define the act or omission and the accompanying mental state that constitute each offense and limit the condemnation of conduct as criminal when it is without fault.
 - E. To differentiate on reasonable grounds between serious and minor offenses.
 - F. To prescribe penalties which are proportionate to the seriousness of offenses and which permit recognition of differences in rehabilitation possibilities among individual offenders.
 - G. To safeguard offenders against excessive, disproportionate or arbitrary punishment.

SECTION 4.03. APPLICATION OF CRIMINAL CODE

- A. The provisions of this criminal code shall apply to all persons committing the acts herein defined within the boundaries of the Umatilla Indian Reservation after formal adoption of this code by the Board of Trustees.
- B. When all or part of a section is amended or repealed remains in force for the purpose of authorizing the accusation, prosecution, conviction and punishment of a person who violated the section or part thereof before the effective date of the amending or repealing action.

SECTION 4.04. DEFENSES AND DEFENSES RAISED BY DEFENDANT

- A. When a defense, other than an affirmative defense as defined in subsection (B) of this section, is raised at a trial, the Tribe has the burden of disproving the defense beyond a reasonable doubt.
- B. When a defense, declared to be an affirmative defense is raised at a trial, the defendant has the burden of proving the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.
- C. The Tribe is not required to negate a defense as defined in subsection (A) of this section unless it is raised by the defendant. "Raised by the defendant" means either notice in writing to the Tribe before commencement of trial or affirmative evidence by a defense witness in the defendant's case in chief.

PART II. CRIMINAL LIABILITY

SECTION 4.05. DEFINITIONS WITH RESPECT TO CULPABILITY

- A. As used in this code unless the context requires otherwise:
 - 1. "Act" means a bodily movement.
 - 2. "Voluntary act" means a bodily movement performed consciously and includes the conscious possession or control or property.
 - 3. "Omission" means a failure to perform an act, the performance of which is required by law.
 - 4. "Conduct" means an act or omission and its accompanying mental state.
 - 5. "To act" means either to perform an act or to omit to perform an act.
 - 6. "Culpable mental state" means intentionally, knowingly, recklessly or with criminal negligence as these terms are defined in paragraphs (7), (8), (9) and (10) of this subsection.
 - 7. "Intentionally" or "with intent", when used with respect to a result or to conduct described by a section defining an offense, means that a person acts with a conscious objective to cause the result or to engage in the conduct so described.
 - 8. "Knowingly" or "with knowledge" when used with respect to conduct or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense, means that a person acts with an awareness that his conduct is of a nature so described or that a circumstance so described exists.
 - 9. "Recklessly", when used with respect to a result or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense, means that a person is aware of and consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the result will occur or that the circumstance exists. The risk must be of such nature and degree that disregard thereof constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable person would observe in the situation.

10. “Criminal negligence” or “Criminally negligent”, when used with respect to a result or to a circumstance described by a statute defining an offense, means that a person fails to be aware of a substantial and unjustifiable risk that the result will occur or that the circumstance exists. The risk must be of such nature and degree that the failure to be aware of it constitutes a gross deviation from the standard of care that a reasonable person would observe in the situation.

SECTION 4.06. REQUIREMENTS OF CULPABILITY

- A. The minimal requirement for criminal liability is the performance by a person of conduct which includes a voluntary act or the omission to perform an act which he is capable of performing.
- B. A person is not guilty of an offense unless he acts with a culpable mental state with respect to each material element of the offense that necessarily requires a culpable mental state. Provided, however, that a culpable mental state is not required if the definition of an offense clearly indicates an intent to dispense with any culpable mental state requirement or for any material element thereof.

SECTION 4.07. CONSTRUCTION OF SECTIONS WITH RESPECT TO CULPABILITY

- A. If a statute defining an offense prescribes a culpable mental state but does not specify the element to which it applies, the prescribed culpable mental state applies to each material element of the offense that necessarily requires a culpable mental state.
- B. Except as provided in section 4.07, if statute defining an offense does not prescribe a culpable mental state, culpability is nonetheless required and is established only if a person acts intentionally, knowingly, recklessly or with criminal negligence.
- C. If the definition of an offense prescribes criminal negligence as the culpable mental state, it is also established in a person acts intentionally, knowingly or recklessly. When recklessness suffices to establish a culpable mental state, it is also established if a person acts intentionally or knowingly. When acting knowingly suffices to establish a culpable mental state, it is also established if a person acts intentionally.
- D. Knowledge that conduct constitutes an offense, or knowledge of the existence, meaning or application of the section defining an offense is not an element of an offense unless the section clearly so provides.

SECTION 4.08. INTOXICATION; DRUG USE OR DEPENDENCE AS DEFENSE

- A. Drug use, dependence on drugs or voluntary intoxication shall not, as such, constitute a defense to a criminal charge, but in any prosecution for an offense, evidence that the defendant used drugs, or was dependent on drugs, or was intoxicated may be offered by the defendant whenever it is relevant to negative an element of the crime charged.
- B. When recklessness establishes an element of the offense, if the defendant, due to drug use, dependence on drugs or voluntary intoxication, is unaware of a risk of which he would have been aware had he not been intoxicated, not using drugs, or not drug dependent, such unawareness is immaterial.

PART III. PARTIES TO CRIME

SECTION 4.09. CRIMINAL LIABILITY DESCRIBED

- A. A person is guilty of a crime if it is committed by his own conduct or by the conduct of another person for which he is criminally liable, or both.

- A. Such other person has not been prosecuted for or convicted of any crime based upon the conduct in question or has been convicted of a different crime; or

 2. The threatened injury is of such gravity that, according to ordinary standards of intelligence and morality, the desirability and urgency of avoiding the injury clearly outweigh the desirability of avoiding the injury sought to be prevented by the section defining the offense in issue.

*STATUTES of the CONFEDERATED TRIBES of the UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION

- B. The necessity and justifiability of conduct under subsection (A) of this section shall not rest upon considerations pertaining only to the morality and advisability of the statute, either in its general application or with respect to its application to a particular class of cases arising thereunder.

- B. He is the initial aggressor, except that his use of physical force upon another person under such circumstances is justifiable if he withdraws from the encounter and effectively communicates to the other person his intent to do so, but the latter nevertheless continues or threatens to continue the use of unlawful physical force; or
- C. The physical force involved is the product of a combat by agreement not specifically authorized by law.

- B. Nothing in subsection (A) of this section constitutes justification for reckless or criminally negligent conduct by a peace officer amounting to an offense against or with respect to innocent persons whom he is not seeking to arrest or retain in custody.

SECTION 4.23. REASONABLE BELIEF DEFINED

- A. For purposes of this part, a reasonable belief that a person has committed an offense means a reasonable belief in facts or circumstances which if true would in law constitute an offense. If the believed facts or circumstances would not in law constitute an offense, an erroneous, though not unreasonable belief that the law is otherwise, does not render justifiable the use of force to make an arrest or to prevent an escape from custody.

SECTION 4.24. USE OF PHYSICAL FORCE BY PRIVATE PERSON ASSISTING IN AN ARREST

- A. Except as provided in subsection (B) of this section, a person who has been directed by a peace officer to assist him to make an arrest or to prevent an escape from custody is justified in using physical force when and to the extent that he reasonably believes that force to be necessary to carry out the peace officer's direction.
- B. A person who has been directed to assist a peace officer under circumstances specified in subsection (A) of this section may use deadly physical force to make an arrest or to prevent an escape only when:
1. He reasonably believes that force to be necessary to defend himself or a third person from what he reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of deadly physical force; or

- A. A person may not use physical force to resist an arrest by a peace officer who is known or reasonably appears to be a peace officer, whether the arrest is lawful or unlawful.

SECTION 4.27. DURESS

- A. The commission of acts which would otherwise constitute an offense, other than murder is not criminal if the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was coerced to do so by the use or threatened use of unlawful physical force upon him or a third person, which force or threatened force was of such nature or degree to overcome earnest resistance.
- B. Duress is not a defense if a person intentionally or recklessly places himself in a situation in which it is probable that he will be subjected to duress.
- C. It is not a defense that a woman acted on the command of her husband, unless she acted under such coercion as would establish a defense under subsection (A) of this section.

SECTION 4.28. ENTRAPMENT

- A. The commission of acts which would otherwise constitute an offense is not criminal if the actor engaged in the proscribed conduct because he was induced to do so by a law enforcement official, or by a person acting in cooperation with a law enforcement official, for the purpose of obtaining evidence to be used against the actor in a criminal prosecution.
- B. As used in this section, "induced" means that the actor did not contemplate and would not otherwise have engaged in the proscribed conduct. Merely affording the actor an opportunity to commit an offense does not constitute entrapment.

PART V. RESPONSIBILITY

SECTION 4.29. EFFECT OF MENTAL DISEASE OR DEFECT

- A. A person is not responsible for criminal conduct if at the time of such conduct as a result of mental disease or defect he lacks substantial capability either to appreciate the criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law.
- B. As used herein, the terms "mental disease or defect" do not include an abnormality manifested only by repeated criminal or otherwise antisocial conduct.
- C. Mental disease or defect excluding responsibility or partial responsibility is an affirmative defense.

SECTION 4.30. EVIDENCE OF DISEASE OR DEFECT ADMISSIBLE AS TO INTENT

- A. Evidence that the actor suffered from a mental disease or defect is admissible whenever it is relevant to the issue of whether he did or did not have the intent which is an element of the crime.

SECTION 4.31. ENTRY OF ORDER OF ACQUITTAL ON GROUNDS OF DISEASE OR DEFECT

- A. If the Court finds that the person is no longer affected by mental disease or defect, or, if so affected, that he no longer presents a substantial danger to himself or the person of others and is not in need of care, supervision or treatment, the Court shall order him discharged from custody.
- B. If the Court finds that the person is affected by mental disease or defect and that he presents a substantial danger to himself or the person of others, but he can be controlled adequately and given proper care, supervision and treatment if he is released on supervision, the Court shall order him released subject to such supervisory orders of the Court as are appropriate in the interests of justice and the welfare of the defendant. The person, persons or agency to whom the individual is released shall be responsible to the Court for the care and supervision of the individual released. The conditions of release may be modified by the Court from time to time as may be necessary.
- C. If the Court finds that the person is affected by a mental disease or defect and presents a substantial risk of danger to himself or the person of others and that he is not a proper subject for release on supervision, the Court shall order him committed to a proper institution for custody, care and treatment for such time and under such conditions as the Court, after proper consultation with psychiatric authorities, may deem proper.

SECTION 4.32. INCAPACITY DUE TO IMMATURITY

- A. A person who is tried as an adult in a criminal prosecution is not criminally responsible for any conduct which occurred when the person was under 18 years of age, unless remanded by the Children's Court to Tribal Court for such proceedings.
- B. Incapacity due to immaturity as herein defined is an affirmative defense.

PART VI. DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS

SECTION 4.33. PERIOD OF IMPRISONMENT, PROBATION

- A. For any one conviction of an offense there may be imposed a period of imprisonment not to exceed one year.

- A. For any one conviction of an offense there may be imposed a fine not to exceed $5,000.00 in amount.
- B. Once imposed any or all of the sentence may be suspended in the discretion of the Court.
- C. In determining whether to impose a fine and its amount the Court shall consider:
 - 1. The financial resources of the defendant and the burden that payment of a fine will impose, with due regard to the other obligations of the defendant; and
 - 2. The ability of the defendant to pay a fine on installment basis or on other conditions to be fixed by the Court.

SECTION 4.35. EFFECT OF NON-PAYMENT OF FINES

- A. When a defendant sentenced to pay a fine defaults in the payment thereof or of any installment, the Court, on motion of the prosecuting attorney or upon its own motion, may require him to show cause why his default should not be treated as contempt of Court and may issue a citation or a warrant of arrest for his appearance.
- B. Unless the defendant shows that his default was not attributable to an intentional refusal to obey the order of the Court or to a failure on his part to make a good faith effort to make the payment, the Court may find that his default constitutes contempt and may order him committed until the fine, or a specified part thereof, is paid.
- C. The term of imprisonment for contempt for non-payment of fines shall be set forth in the commitment order, and shall not exceed one day for each $25.00 of the fine. A person committed for non-payment of a fine shall be given credit toward payment for each day of imprisonment at the rate specified in the commitment order.
- D. If it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that the default in the payment of the fine is not contempt, the Court may enter an order allowing the defendant additional time for payment, reducing the amount thereof or of each installment or revoking the fine or the unpaid portion thereof in whole or in part.
- E. A default in the payment of a fine or any installment thereof may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of a judgment. The levy of execution for the collection of a fine shall not discharge a defendant committed to imprisonment for contempt until the amount of the fine has actually been collected.

SECTION 4.43. RENUNCIATION AS A DEFENSE TO CONSPIRACY

- A. It is a defense to a charge of conspiracy that the actor, after conspiring to commit a crime, thwarted commission of the crime which was the object of the conspiracy, under circumstances manifesting a complete and voluntary renunciation of his criminal purpose. Renunciation by one conspirator does not affect the liability of another conspirator who does not join in the renunciation of the conspiratorial objective.
- B. The defense of renunciation is an affirmative defense.

SECTION 4.44. DURATION OF CONSPIRACY

- A. Conspiracy is a continuing course of conduct which terminates when the crime or crimes which are its object are completed or the agreement that they be committed is abandoned by the defendant and those with whom he conspired.
- B. Abandonment is presumed if neither the defendant nor anyone with whom he conspired does any overt act in pursuance of the conspiracy during the applicable period of limitation.
- C. If an individual abandons the agreement, the conspiracy is terminated as to him only if and when he advises those with whom he conspired of his abandonment or he informs the law enforcement authorities of the existence of the conspiracy and of his participation therein.

SECTION 4.45. DEFENSES TO SOLICITATION AND CONSPIRACY

- A. Except as provided in subsection (B) of this section, it is immaterial to the liability of a person who solicits or conspires with another to commit a crime that:

APPENDIX A

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

CRIMINAL CODE

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

Public Law 83-280 (18 U.S.C. § 1162), enacted in 1953, allows certain states to acquire criminal jurisdiction over certain Indian reservations. Through this law the United States ceded criminal jurisdiction over the Umatilla Indian Reservation to the State of Oregon. The law also abrogated the criminal jurisdiction exercised by the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation in favor of jurisdiction by the State of Oregon. A 1968 amendment to that law (P.L. 90-284, codified at 18 U.S.C. § 1323) allows states that have acquired jurisdiction over Indian reservations to retrocede that jurisdiction back to the United States and the affected tribes. Executive Order No. 11435 (November 21, 1968) delegated to the Secretary of Interior the President's authority to accept such retrocessions. It further stated that "acceptance of retrocession . . . by the Secretary hereunder shall be effected by publication in the Federal Register of a notice which shall specify the jurisdiction retroceded and the effective date of the retrocession"

In Resolution 79-31 (June 20, 1979) the Board of Trustees of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation authorized a letter formally requesting that the State of Oregon retrocede criminal jurisdiction over the Umatilla Indian Reservation. Oregon Governor Atiyeh responded with Governor's Executive Order 80-8 (May 13, 1980). EO-80-8 offered to retrocede to the United States all the criminal jurisdiction over the Umatilla Indian Reservation that P.L. 280 had ceded to the State of Oregon. In 46 Fed. Reg. 2195 (January 8, 1981) the United States accepted the State of Oregon's retrocession of "all criminal jurisdiction exercised by the State of Oregon over the Umatilla Indian Reservation," effective January 2, 1981. The notice specified that, "Through retrocession to the United States, criminal jurisdiction will return to the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation."

In Resolution 81-14 (December 22, 1980), the Board of Trustees established the Umatilla Tribal Police Department, making it "responsible for the enforcement of all tribal criminal laws."

In Resolution 81-15 (December 22, 1980) the Board of Trustees renamed and expanded the jurisdiction of the Umatilla Tribal Court of Fish and Game Offenses (which had been created under the 1978 Fish and Game Code). The name of the court became the Umatilla Tribal Court, and it gained "full jurisdiction to hear and decide cases involving the violation of tribal criminal laws."

In Resolution 81-16 (December 22, 1980), the Board of Trustees noted that a Tribal Criminal Code was in draft form, and that criminal jurisdiction would soon be returned to the Tribes. The resolution adopted the criminal laws of the State of Oregon to serve as a temporary criminal code for the Confederated Tribes for the time period from the return of criminal jurisdiction to the enactment of the Tribal Criminal Code.

In Resolution 81-62 (August 19, 1981), the Board of Trustees noted that the Tribes' Law and Order Committee had approved the draft Law and Order Code, and that the Board was currently reviewing that draft. Noting that the draft code was preferable to the adoption of Oregon criminal laws (which the Board had ordered in Resolution 82-16), the Board then enacted the draft Law and Order Code "as tribal law effective immediately and shall remain in effect until such time as the Board completes its review of the draft Law and Order Code and revises the draft into final tribal law." The Board set a July 1982 deadline for the completion of that review and the enactment of a final Law and Order Code.

There is no record that the Board of Trustees ever passed a resolution enacting a final version of the "draft Law and Order Code." The record of the Board's 1982 and 1983 resolutions is complete, and contains no such resolution. Nevertheless, subsequent Board resolutions refer to an existing "Tribal Criminal Code and Procedures" or a "Tribal Criminal Code." For instance, Resolution 83-05 (October 20, 1982) refers to "the Tribal Criminal Code." Likewise, the first recital of Resolution 83-26 (January 14, 1983) states: "Whereas the Board of Trustees enacted a Tribal Criminal Code and Procedures on August 19, 1981, pursuant to Resolution 81-62." From that point forward, all references to tribal criminal law in Board resolutions are always to the "Tribal Criminal Code."

In addition to codifying the tribe's criminal law, the new code enacted in Resolution 81-62 (August 19, 1981) also adopted the civil motor vehicle laws of the State of Oregon as civil law of the Confederated Tribes (section 162 of the original Criminal Code).

Following the enactment of the Criminal Code, the Confederated Tribes has entered into many cooperative agreements with neighboring law enforcement entities. In Resolution 82-2 (October 7, 1981), the Board approved an agreement between the Confederated Tribes and the State of Oregon establishing mutual extradition procedures and authorizing fresh pursuit of suspects into areas under each other's jurisdiction. In this resolution the Board also enacted a two-page tribal Extradition Code. The Extradition Code was incorporated into later amendments of the Criminal Code. In Resolution No. 04-036 (June 2, 2004), the Board of Trustees approved a new Fresh Pursuit Agreement with the State of Oregon, and continuing the 1981 agreement regarding extradition pending further negotiations.

To allow for the uniform enforcement of law on the Umatilla Indian Reservation, the Confederated Tribes, on April 28, 1995, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Umatilla County. The MOU authorizes a procedure for the cross-deputization of Tribal police officers by the County Sheriff, "so that said cross-deputized UTPD officers can exercise the arrest authority of County Sheriff law enforcement personnel . . ." Consequently, cross-deputized Tribal police officers may arrest non-Indians who violate state law on the Umatilla Indian Reservation.

Prior to opening a class III gaming facility on the Umatilla Indian Reservation in 1995, the Confederated Tribes and the State of Oregon entered into a Tribal - State Compact for Regulation of Class III Gaming, dated November 18, 1993, which was approved by the U.S. Department of Interior on February 9, 1994, and was subsequently amended seven times. The Confederated Tribes and Oregon entered into an Amended and Restated Compact on December 9, 1999, which was approved by the U.S. Department of Interior on March 17, 2000. Pursuant to section 5(B) of the amended compact, the Confederated Tribes entered into a Memorandum of Agreement with the State of Oregon which deputized Oregon State Police officers to arrest American Indians on the Umatilla Indian Reservation for violations of the tribal Criminal Code. That agreement took effect on October 1, 2003.

Other cooperative law enforcement agreements entered into by the Confederated Tribes include: 1) a Major Crime Team Agreement entered into by the tribe, the Umatilla County Sheriff, and the Oregon State Police, 2) a May 31, 2001, Cooperative Policing Agreement between the sixteen law enforcement agencies operating within Umatilla and Morrow counties, Oregon, and 3) the Blue Mountain Enforcement Narcotics Team agreement.

The Criminal Code was amended seventeen times between 1981 and 2006. The resolutions enacting those amendments were: No. 83-05 (October 20, 1982), No. 83-26 (January 14, 1983), No. 83-65 (June 28, 1983), No. 93-19 (April 23, 1993), No. 93-51 (November 22, 1993), No. 94-23 (March 16, 1994), No. 96-90 (November 20, 1996), No. 96-104 (December 18, 1996), No. 97-36 (July 23, 1997), No. 97-39 (August 6, 1997), No. 99-12 (March 3, 1999), No. 99-63 (July 28, 1999), No. 99-100 (December 15, 1999), No. 00-26 (March 13, 2000), No. 01-05 (January 8, 2001), No. 04-037 (June 2, 2004), and No. 05-095 (October 3, 2005).

In Resolution No. 07-031 (March 26, 2007), the Board of Trustees enacted a revised Criminal Code, containing many new provisions relating to prevention and prosecution of crimes of domestic violence, and reformatting the Criminal Code to make it consistent with the general format that has been adopted for use in all tribal codes.

In Resolution No. 09-023 (March 9, 2009), the Board of Trustees adopted a comprehensive Sex Offender Registration Code. Resolution No. 09-023 expressly repealed in its entirety section 4.107 of the Criminal Code, pertaining to Sex Offender Registration.

In Resolution No. 09-086 (July 6, 2009), the Board of Trustees corrected a clerical error that had been present in the Code due to the March 2007 amendments. As a result of the 2007 amendments, sections 4.169(A) and (B) incorrectly referenced sections 4.151 to 4.155. Sections 4.169(A) and (B) were amended to reference the correct sections, 4.164 to 4.166.

Towards the goal of eradicating gang activity on the Umatilla Indian Reservation, the Board of Trustees approved Resolution 10-043 (June 7, 2010), thereby enacting a new Part XX to the Criminal Code. Part XX establishes mandatory minimum sentences applicable to persons convicted of gang-related crimes and establishes solicitation of gang membership as a crime.

In Resolution No. 10-058 (July 12, 2010), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to add a new provision dealing with underage users of alcohol who are of the age 18 through 20. Minors possessing or consuming alcohol between the ages of 18 and 20 were formerly addressed under the Confederated Tribes' Juvenile Code. In preparing the official version of the Code as amended by Resolution 10-058, the Confederated Tribes' Office of Legal Counsel changed the numbering of the Code section from 4.167.A to 4.168 to conform to the Confederated Tribes' standard Code format, which affected the numbering of subsequent sections. No substantive changes were made to the language approved by Resolution 10-058.

In Resolution No. 10-066 (August 9, 2010), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to exercise jurisdiction over crimes committed by Indians at the In Lieu and Treaty Fishing Access Sites on the Columbia River designated by Public Laws 79-14 and 100-581. These amendments also authorized officers of the Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fisheries Enforcement department to enforce the Criminal Code at those sites.

In Resolution 13-040 (October 14, 2013), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to further ensure the ability of the Tribes to exercise VAWA 2013 jurisdiction over non-Indians by making jury verdicts unanimous, creating a tribal habeas corpus appeal process, requiring a first appearance within 48 hours of someone taken into custody regardless of weekends and holidays, and further clarifying that automatic protection orders are orders of the court.

In Resolution 14-018 (March 24, 2014), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to address/clarify various issues concerning VAWA 2013 and TLOA 2010 as well explicitly include tribal nations in the extradition process and enhance the concealed weapons permit process.

In Resolution 16-044 (August 8, 2016), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to create a chapter for victim's rights in domestic abuse, sexual assault, stalking, or dating related crimes. It also created the crime of Unlawful Dissemination of an Intimate Image and Interfering With a Police Officer or Probation Officer. These amendments were adopted to implement the expanded inherent criminal jurisdiction over non-Indians authorized under the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act of 2022.

In Resolution 22-090 (October 31, 2022), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to add a Chapter 7 and establish a Fatality Review Team that will determine the number of fatalities occurring on or near the Umatilla Indian Reservation, identify ways community response might have intervened to prevent a fatality, provide accurate information about domestic and other violence, identify ways future deaths can be prevented, victim safety enhanced, and offender accountability increased, and generate recommendations for improving community response and prevention of fatalities.

In Resolution 23-008 (January 30, 2023), the Board of Trustees amended the Criminal Code to legalize certain marijuana and hemp related activities on the Umatilla Indian Reservation.
