SECTION 1.01. FINDINGS

A. The sovereign authority of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR) over Reservation affairs is set forth in Article VI, §1(d) of the Tribal Constitution which provides that the Board of Trustees has the authority to “promulgate and enforce ordinances governing the conduct of all persons and activities within the boundaries of the Umatilla Indian Reservation…”.

B. The CTUIR, through its Tribal government, unincorporated enterprises, and incorporated enterprises provide over 1200 job opportunities within the Umatilla Indian Reservation constituting the largest employer on the Reservation and the second largest employer in the region.

C. The Board of Trustees has determined that it is in the best interest of the CTUIR and its members to maximize individual freedom of choice in the pursuit of employment opportunities and to promote an employment climate conducive to economic growth.

D. The establishment and nurturing of a Reservation economy is essential to the exercise of Tribal sovereignty because of the Tribal revenues generated by Tribal enterprises, which enterprises produce the revenue used by the CTUIR to fund Tribal governmental programs and services to Tribal members and other Reservation residents.

E. As an employer, the CTUIR is committed, both by policy and practice, to ensuring an employment environment in Tribal government and in Tribal enterprises that promotes fair employment practices, protects employee health and safety and provides meaningful mechanisms to address workplace problems and personnel actions that may be taken against individual employees.

F. It shall be the public policy of the CTUIR that the right to work shall not be subject to undue restraint or coercion.

G. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the CTUIR desires to establish its own law governing the workplace, the rights of employees and the obligations of employers within the Umatilla Indian Reservation, and to avoid being bound by the laws of the other sovereigns, such as the federal government.

H. No employee within the Umatilla Indian Reservation shall be forced to join, or be penalized for not joining, a union or other collective bargaining organization, and should be able to make that choice freely and voluntarily.
